

Registered Homeschoolers

ASCEND Online

"Parents are the first teachers of their children in the ways of the faith. Parents are called to pass on to their children the best of what they've been given, and yes, to help them learn from their mistakes."

JON LEONETTI
Mission of the Family

Dynamic Catholic

Support for Homeschoolers:

ASCEND Online supports the right of parents in BC to homeschool their children. We offer the following supports to families that choose this educational option:

*access to ASCEND Online library resources. There is a fee for shipping and larger kits or items may require a deposit.

*monthly school Newsletters

*access to online learning subscriptions. A minimal fee may be required.

*Level A assessments, one per year in each core subject (to assess grade level).

*2 hours of consultation with our K-9 Academic Advisor, 10-12 Academic Advisor, or vice-principal.

*an invitation to participate in ASCEND Online community school and high school prayers.

*access to student and parent workshops sponsored by ASCEND Online.

*access to ASCEND clubs and virtual programs, based on seat availability and may require a minimal fee

See below for a comparison between registered homeschoolers and enrolled online learners (formerly called DL-Distributed Learning).

	Registered Homeschool	Online Learning
--	-----------------------	-----------------

Learning is guided, evaluated and reported on by a BC certified teacher.

no

yes

Graduates are eligible to receive a BC Dogwood Certificate.

no

yes

Must follow BC curriculum.

no

yes

Must participate in provincial testing (FSA, numeracy and literacy assessments).

no

yes

Eligible to follow curriculum of choice.

yes

yes

